Today's Bread Pan: Habitat for Humanity - These monies will help fund the houses being built/renovated in Kent County in 2025. The families who buy Habitat homes are people who are trying to take care of their needs without the help of others, but cannot afford simple, decent housing for their families. Habitat offers low interest rates and requires the head of the households to put in 150 hours of work on their own home and 150 hours of work on other Habitat homes. RUMC will be participating in Habitat for Humanity again this year, so look for those dates if you are interested.
